1. During the past two months Yugoslavia has been exporting to Poland unspecified quantities of nickel, lead, copper sulphate and textiles which have been shipped to Rotterdam for transshipment to Baltic ports. The Rotterdam firm, Poortman N.V., is acting as intermediary in this trade.
2. In exchange for these commodities, Yugoslavia is receiving Indonesian tin, rubber and spices, but it is not known how compensation is effected between Indonesia and Poland.
3. Up to the present time only small trial shipments have been made by Yugoslavia, but it is believed that, now that these have proven successful, a triangular trade on a larger scale will be negotiated.
